the subject selected for her current engagement is one of the most novel and unusual romances ever presented to the motion picture world. This five-part subject on the Paramount program is entitled "Still Waters," and tells a novel story of circus and rural life, by Edith Banard Delano. The novel canal boat atmosphere, the production of an entire itinerant circus together with amusing comedy and unusual dramatic strength enables Miss Clark to appear at her very best. The added attraction on this program is the Paramount Weekly News, which illustrates all recent occurrences of interest that transpires on both sides of the globe. HUME HUSIEKY

On a Large Scale on Account of the War According to a Federal Bureau.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 27— In a study of the hosiery industry of the United States, just completed in a study of the hoelery industry of the United States, just completed by the Bureau of Foreign and Donestic Commerce, Department of Commerce, it is pointed out that since the war started there has been a great increase in the production of hoelery in this country, and that even before the war began there had been a steady increase of about fifteen per cent annually for a number of years. One of the most noticeable results of the increased production before the war started was the rapid decrease in imports. From 1909 to 1915 imports of cotton hosiery fell off from $6,400,000 to $3,000,000, or over 50 per cent.

This report by the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce is entitled "The Hosiery Industry" and is the second of a series of studies of the clothing industry, the first of which dealt with muslin underwear. The reports are prepared by the cost of production division of the bureau and are intended primar-
